

50 certificate programs served

1,230 students

30 associate degree programs served

990 students